Observance of Texas Independence Day

The President recognized the Secretary of the Senate, who read the following in observance of Texas Independence Day:

"On February 24, 1836, twelve days before the final siege of the Alamo, Colonel William Barret Travis sent out an appeal for aid. 'To the people of Texas, and all Americans in the world . . . ' has become a part of American history. Travis wrote several copies and dispatched them by courier to different points. An original in Travis' handwriting is displayed in the foyer of the Texas Archives and Library Building.

"May I repeat today those words that stirred free men around the world.

"THE TRAVIS LETTER FROM THE ALAMO

Commandancy of the Alamo
Bejar, Feby. 24th, 1836

"To the people of Texas & all Americans in the world—

"Fellow citizens & compatriots—

"I am besieged, by a thousand or more of the Mexicans under Santa Anna—I have sustained a continual Bombardment & cannonade, for 24 hours & have not lost a man—The enemy has demanded a surrender at discretion, otherwise, the garrison are to be put to the sword, if the fort is taken—I have answered the demand with a cannon shot, & our flag still waves proudly from the walls—I shall never surrender or retreat. Then, I call on you in the name of Liberty, of patriotism & everything dear to the American character, to come to our aid, with all dispatch—The enemy is receiving reinforcements daily & will no doubt increase to three or four thousand in four or five days. If this call is neglected, I am determined to sustain myself as long as possible & die like a soldier who never forgets what is due to his own honor & that of his country — VICTORY OR DEATH.

“William Barret Travis,
“Lt. Col. Comdt.

“P.S. The Lord is on our side—When the enemy appeared in sight we had not three bushels of corn—We have since found in deserted houses 80 or 90 bushels and got into the walls 20 or 30 head of Beeves.

Travis”
